EXPERIENCE

No prior experience in the yachting industry however I am very determined and willing to learn all about the industry and what it has to offer. I am a fast learner and can follow instructions as well as work unsupervised, if need be, I believe that if given the chance, I would be an asset to any crew. I am very easily teachable and drama free, always doing everything to the best of my ability.

Objective

I am a young, enthusiastic, humorous, and driven individual, willing to learn and always do a job to the best of my ability. Many people describe me as being easy to work with as well as a good team player that can take responsibility if needed. I am looking for a permanent or rotational role as a Deckhand on a private or charter yacht.
